

The Mentorship Team presents

Effective Mentoring – Building Leaders for Tomorrow

a complimentary webinar

April 8th, 2015 10:30 – 11:30 am

The need for leaders is a global challenge facing every industry – including human resources. This presentation will provide insight into the paradigm shift from traditional mentoring to effective or modern mentoring. Attendees will gain an understanding of the fundamental skills that are required to become an effective mentor and how that will assist in the development of leaders for tomorrow. Organizations are struggling with a leadership talent shortage and countries are concerned that the youth may not be ready to lead their nation into the future. This interactive presentation will outline the skills that are required to develop our future leaders based on the "gift of mentoring".

Presenter: Doug Lawrence

Doug Lawrence is the founder of TalentC® a Human Resources solution provider. He has over 30 years of mentoring and leadership experience in federal, provincial and private sector environments and is recognized as a thought leader in the mentoring space.

Doug has worked with organizations to establish mentoring programs and mentoring cultures. He has presented on mentoring topics demonstrating the value that mentoring can bring to an organization and how it can enhance the personal growth of an individual. Doug's passion is contagious. He is committed to helping organizations and people be successful and has dedicated his life to the coaching and mentoring of others.

Watch for more information for another upcoming complimentary webinar with

Ann Rolfe
on May 28th
3:00 – 4:00 pm.

Register at <http://whoozin.com/YRK-DW3-F9UM>

For questions or more information, contact Caroline Hoffart at caroline.hoffart@saskpolytech.ca

saskpolytech.ca

